

Modules / Excursion / Evening Lectures (as of 21 July 2006)

Modules

The modules 1-4 (see time table) are devoted to special topics in close connection with the goals of the summer school. Each topic will be introduced by an expert in a one-hour lecture, which will be followed by an intense discussion of approximately two hours.

Wednesday, 26.7. / Thursday, 27.7. / Friday, 28.7. / Monday, 31.7.
[14 – 17 h]

- Alienation and Radicalisation. Young Muslims in Germany [26.7.]
Hamed Abdel Samad, Univ. Erfurt, Islamwissenschaft
- (International) Law as a Means of Conflict Resolution [27.7.]
Stefan Lorenzmeier, Univ. Augsburg, Völkerrecht, internationales Wasserrecht
- Fair Distribution of Resources as Peace Mediator [28.7.]
Prof. Armin Reller / Dr. Simon Meißner, Univ. Augsburg, Wissenschaftszentrum Umwelt
- Global Governance of Biodiversity and Rights of Indigenous People [31.7.]
Sliman Abu Amara, Freie Univ. Amsterdam, Institute for Environmental Studies

Sunday, 30.7.:

- Visit to the Dachau Concentration Camp Memorial Site (optional)
Nicole Schneider, Förderverein für Internationale Jugendbegegnung und Gedenkstättenarbeit in Dachau e.V. [<http://www.foerderverein-dachau.de>]

Evening Lectures (in cooperation with the PAX office of the City of Augsburg)
[19 h; Augustana Forum, Hollbau, Im Annahof 4, 86150 Augsburg]
Wednesday, 26.7. / Thursday, 27.7. / Monday, 31.7.

The evening lectures also address the general public.

- Terrorismus, Islamismus und die Gefahren für unsere Gesellschaft [26.7. / in German]
Prof. Peter Waldmann, Univ. Augsburg
- Religionen und ihre Rolle in Konflikten [27.7. / in German]
Dr. Johannes Frühbauer / Prof. Bernd Oberdorfer, Univ. Augsburg
- Developing Higher Education in Palestine [31.7.]
Prof. Annick Suzor-Weiner, Vizepräsidentin der Universität Paris-Süd / Palestinian European Academic Cooperation in Education / UNESCO